

Neuroscience Lecture Series

Alexander Dromerick, MD

Methodist Rehabilitation Center – 2nd Floor Conference Room

Stroke Recovery and Rehabilitation

September 23, 2009

Agenda

- 7:45 Registration
- 8:00 Lecture
- 9:00 Evaluation & Adjourn

General Description:

This session will address current research findings related to biological and clinical mechanisms of recovery following stroke.

Objectives

At the conclusion of the lecture, participants should be Better able to:

1. Describe clinical patterns of recovery
2. Explain biological and clinical mechanisms of recovery
3. Describe anticipated rehabilitation treatments and ongoing clinical trials of those treatments

Alexander W. Dromerick, MD, is the director of the Neuroscience Research Center, director of the Comprehensive Stroke Research Program at National Rehabilitation Hospital, and Professor of Medicine at Georgetown University in Washington DC. He also serves as the director of the Stroke Rehabilitation Liaison Service at Washington Hospital Center. He is board certified by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology. His research interest and publications are related to stroke recovery.

Continuing Education Credit

Satisfactory completion of this activity requires a minimum attendance at 90% of the lecture and completion of an activity assessment and self assessment of achievement of learning objectives. Satisfactory completion of the activity is required for continuing education credit to be awarded.

Physicians

Methodist Rehabilitation Center is accredited by MSMA to provide CME for physicians. Methodist Rehabilitation Center designates this education activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. A physician should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

Psychologists:

Methodist Rehabilitation Center is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. Methodist Rehabilitation Center maintains responsibility for this program and its content. This activity is designated for 1 hour of continuing education for psychologists. commercial products.

Accommodations: In accordance with the ADA requirements, if you are disabled and require special services, contact our office at least one week prior to the date of the presentation.

Methodist Rehabilitation Center has twice been named one of America's Best Hospitals by U.S. News & World Report, and it's one of only two in the state accepted into the prestigious Council of Teaching Hospitals. The center's 9-year designation as one of only 16 Traumatic Brain Injury Model (TBI) System sites in the nation also has put MRC on the forefront of exciting improvements in the treatment of TBI.

Disclosure: Presenters and planning committee members participating in continuing medical education activities sponsored by Methodist Rehabilitation Center are expected to disclose to the activity audience any real or apparent conflict(s) of interest related to the content of their presentation. The planning committee members and speakers have signed disclosure agreements and have stated they have no conflicting interests related to this education activity.